

Survival Afrikaans

A certificate of attendance short course

What is the focus of the course?

You will be able to use Afrikaans in a basic and functional manner. You will gain a basic Afrikaans vocabulary for use in campus-related communication and specific emphasis will be placed on speaking, listening, and reading. As part of the larger university context, you will also gain an understanding of the cultural value of multilingualism. This crash course is practical and interactive, and campus-related scenarios are incorporated to encourage the use of authentic language.

Who is the presenter?

Helga Sykstus is a seasoned lecturer with 23 years' experience of teaching Afrikaans as an additional language to students and clients from all over the world. She is a passionate lecturer who enjoys sharing her love for language and culture. Her enthusiasm for language teaching equips her to create a positive and supportive learning environment.

Who should attend?

Strictly non-mother tongue speakers of Afrikaans with no prior knowledge of Afrikaans should register for this fun and informal course.

Any prerequisites?

This course is aimed at Stellenbosch University students with no Afrikaans knowledge whatsoever. Access to internet, Wi-Fi or mobile data is essential.

How is this course presented?

The crash course is presented over a period of 8 weeks.

Face-to-face contact time = 16 hours (2 hours per week)

Online activities = 16 hours (2 hours per week of autonomous learning)

The face-to-face time includes authentic and interactive language use activities where participants get the opportunity to practise the target language in real life situations.

What does the course cost?

The course cost is R300 per participant and includes all course material, access to the online platform and refreshments. The registration fee for the course is subsidized by outside funds to provide it to students at a minimal cost. For this reason, there will be an additional financial obligation if participants do not complete the course or cancel their registration on time.

How does registration work?

- (1) If you are interested to enrol for the course, please contact Helga Sykstus at languagelearninghub@sun.ac.za who will then share the link to the application form.
- (2) Before registration you will be asked to first meet with the presenter via Teams for a short conversation to determine your proficiency in Afrikaans.
- (3) After successful registration, you will receive an automated email with information on how to pay for the course. Please note that all course fees are payable before the course starts.
- (4) The last step is to activate your online profile on our short course platform, called SunOnline to have access to the online activities, material, quizzes, etc.

What can participants do after this?

If an individual is interested in a follow up course, they can apply for the credit-bearing course of the Department Afrikaans & Dutch called Afrikaanse Taalverwerwing 178.
