

Crafting confident presentations

A certificate of competence short course

Ever wished for the skills to tackle presentations with ease and elegance? Learn to convey your message and confidently face your audience.

What is the focus of this course?

This hands-on course will empower you to develop and present impactful presentations. You will learn valuable presentation principles and gain thorough theoretical and practical knowledge of the art of presenting.

This course will help you to:

- reflect your personal signature and style in your presentations
- understand the significance of voice control, body language, gestures, posture, and functional movement to captivate and influence your audience
- practice visual and vocal cues, to communicate confidence during stressful interactions
- gain in-depth insight into presentation methods and structures
- prepare striking content with visual aids to captivate your audience

Who should attend and what are the career benefits?

If you would like to present with confidence and convey a clear message - whether it be to a large audience, or during one-on-one interviews - then this course is for you!

To ensure optimal learning, we limit the number of participants.

The sessions are complemented by online learning, and certain aspects of the course are assessed.

Any prerequisites?

You will need access to a computer and should be able to create electronic documents.
