Campus Afrikaans

A Certificate of Attendance short course

Are you a non-mother tongue speaker of Afrikaans with no prior knowledge of Afrikaans, and a registered student at Stellenbosch University? Consider joining this interactive short course to learn some basics Afrikaans that you can use with fellow students on and around campus!

What is the focus of this course?

You will be able to use Afrikaans in a very basic and functional manner. You will gain a basic Afrikaans vocabulary for use in campus-related communication and specific emphasis will be placed on speaking, listening, and reading. As part of the larger university context, you will also gain an understanding of the cultural value of multilingualism. This crash course is practical and interactive, and campus-related scenarios are incorporated to encourage the use of authentic language.

Topic 1	Topic 2	Topic 3	Topic 4	Topic 5
Introduction	Greeting & Health	Personal information	Social interaction	In and around town

The crash course is presented on Stellenbosch campus over a period of 8 weeks. The face-to-face time includes authentic and interactive language use activities where participants get the opportunity to practise the target language in real life situations.

Face-to-face contact time = 16 hours (2 hours per week) | Online activities = 16 hours (2 hours per week of autonomous learning)

What are the course outcomes?

Upon successful completion of the course, you should be able to do the following in Afrikaans:

- greet and introduce yourself,
- provide basic personal information such as name, age, address, and telephone number,
- ask and respond to basic questions,
- have basic conversations with other students, and
- use basic vocabulary related to campus life.

When will the course take place?

The dates and times for the 2026 offerings are:

	Course start date	Time and day	Enrol by
Semester 1	Week of 02 March	17:15 – 19:15 (Tuesdays OR Thursdays)	25 February
Semester 2	Week of 03 August	17:15 – 19:15 (Mondays OR Tuesdays)	29 May

What does the course cost?

Participants who enrol for this course will be sponsored by funding which includes the registration fee, all course material, access to the online platform and refreshments.

Stellenbosch University provides a selection of fully funded short courses to students and staff. While participants do not pay out of pocket, these courses are funded by the university or private sponsors. Every enrolment represents a valuable learning opportunity, and non-attendance without valid reasons takes away a spot from someone who is committed to completing the course. To ensure responsible use of these resources, participants must carefully assess their workload before enrolling. Attendance at all sessions is required for successful completion of the course. By enrolling in a funded short course, you acknowledge and agree to these terms, including full attendance requirements and responsible participation.
